

Bree's Story-Sexy Secrets Available Now!!_10.21.22

Dear Reader,

Happy Friday to you and you and you!

Sorry I had that Sound of Music tune in my head for some reason. The year is flying by and um, hello...where in the world has the time gone? I sit here in Florida with long sleeves, leggings, and windows open for Winston McFluff my Great Pyrenees because we are having a cold front. My family and friends back home in Chicago are laughing at my low of 58 degrees. I know, I get it but I'm a wimp now living in sunny Florida.

Today was a big day. HUGE day as my second published book, Sexy Secrets launched. It is the continuing story set in Lake Harmony. The first book brought you to the town of Lake Harmony which sits about 50 miles west of Chicago. A charming little community with hilarious characters and a lot of shenanigans. It was a small glimpse of this Midwest spot on the imaginary map in my brain and told the story of Julia and Jackson who were high school sweethearts, hit a rough patch, and their friends and family brought them back together stronger than ever through adventures in dates with each other.

This debut novel left my readers with a sneak peek of Bree and Noah. Bree, Lake Harmony's town sweetheart, and Noah the sexy new doctor that moves into town to become Jackson's partner at the medical practice. Love at first sight? Hmm..maybe if you consider them falling hard and fast.

Bree has a fear of her heart being broken again so she holds herself back a bit afraid Noah won't be there for her forever. Noah will do anything in his power to show her that he is in it 100% with absolutely no doubts. Together they find their way, but of course, I had to throw some stress and turmoil into the mix! I know, I know..but it all ends well as they work together.

Sorry for the slight pause in my writing but I have a special surprise for you...the girls just popped in and they brought a bottle of the Harmony Winery Mead for us to celebrate the book release.

Bree: Tanja I love how you wrote our story. Thank you for throwing in the fun trip to Hollywood. That was definitely a weekend that Noah and I will remember forever. Jax was so awesome to share the afternoon with Noah and the band and getting ready with a Hollywood star was so much fun. I really hope Sophie comes to visit us in Lake Harmony!

Hillary: (Giving me the stink eye)

Me: I had so much fun writing this story of you and Noah. You both deserved to find your happy ending. I am so sorry for your trouble with the school. I almost got myself in a jam with my big boss finding out I wrote your story. Thankfully she loves to read some romance herself and told me to not worry about it. You brought the mead! I love that they named it 'Is it mead you're looking for.' Cracks me up.

Girls: Us too, laughing

Me: So, ah Hillary....you are giving me the stink eye.

Hillary: You made me sound a bit bitchy in Bree's story.

Me: Well...

Julia: Hillary you are being bitchy and that is why you and Garrett are going to work through your sh*t.

Hillary: Whatever.

Sam: Anyway, it's so fun to read about the town and goofy gossip Gertie. We always joke that she likes to stir trouble, but I agree with Noah that when you need her on your side, she is her own army. She won me over with all the help she and Noah gave you Bree.

Bree: I love Gertie and she sure isn't a person to mess with. Snickerdoodles!

Me: So, ladies, what is on the agenda next?

Julia: As you know and readers will find out, there is some turmoil in our gang, but it will be getting resolved sooner than later. Right, Hillary?

Hillary: Yes, I promised everyone that we would figure things out and we are working on it. At least we can be in the same room together without causing a scene.

Me: Really? This is new. I am happy to hear it though. I think my readers want to see you find your forever love too Hill. It's not always fun being the single one in your group of friends. I think you both will figure out a way to fix the hurt. Right? I would love to write another story with love and laughter. Speaking of, how are all the guys? Where are they tonight?

Bree: Noah is hosting poker night at our house so the girls and I thought we would come to celebrate with you and see if you have a couple of copies to give us for our next book club read.

Me: Absolutely-although you all know the story.

Bree: It's just so much fun to see it through your eyes.

Well, my lovely readers, this newsletter is going to close out with a big THANK YOU and a big hug for all of your support. Writing these stories has been such a great escape for me. I hope you continue to join me on our adventures in Lake Harmony. Feel free to comment on my social media sites or send me a message through my website. I try to respond to all your messages.

Happy Reading~
Tanja
